

Stop holding the air waves hostage and give them back to the public. With your needless and ridiculous fines you are doing nothing but putting the nail in the coffin for broadcast. You should be acting in the public interest not forcing the public to have to buy cable and satellite. Let the public see and hear what they want instead of carrying out your own personal vendettas on individual broadcasters. It isn't just the broadcaster that suffers it is the entire public.